The Venue and Ulaan Baatar

The Conference Team have arranged for the venue to be The Children's Palace, a beautiful training center for Mongolia's gifted children in the heart of our Capital. UB offers a variety of things to do in your free time, such as catching a show at the Drama Theatre, visiting a monastery, getting a relaxing massage, playing golf or touring the national museum – there is something for everyone's taste. The city is easy to get around on foot, with most major landmarks within a 30 minute walk of the city center. If needed, taxis are relatively cheap at 700MNT/KM or buses can be caught for a flat rate of 400MNT (maps are here <http://map.gogo.mn/lang.do?language=en>). In June the temperature sits comfortably around the mid twenties degrees Centigrade and in the evenings the temperature cools which gives a nice relief.

Business Meeting

There will be a business meeting during the second day of the conference. All are welcome to attend to discuss ways to promote communication among school social workers worldwide. One item that will be discussed is the possibility of holding a 7th international school social work conference. For this to happen there needs to be a national association that is willing to host and plan the conference. Ideally a national group attending the conference in Ulaan Baatar will present a proposal at the business meeting with preliminary plans for a conference. The potential is great for school social workers to benefit from international communication flowing in all directions for creative problem solving. The challenge is how to make an international conference readily accessible and attractive to more practitioners, since only a few have been able to afford to travel to international conferences so far. A proposal with ideas for an international event that is readily available to practitioners would be welcome. National school social work associations are encouraged to consider hosting a conference and to prepare a proposal to present in Ulaan Baatar.

The last decade has seen more countries placing social workers in schools and several other countries are expressing interest. There are about 50 countries with social workers in the schools.
